

Can Only Vote in Honolulu.

Some weeks ago the Herald, wishing to find out what status the persons who had voted in one district two years ago and had moved to another district since that time would have in the Prohibition election, wrote to Secretary Mott-Smith on the subject. His answer which is self-explanatory, is as follows:

Editor Hawaii Herald, Hilo, Hawaii.

Dear Sir:
Please accept this late reply to your letter of the 20th ultimo.

The inquiry of your letter is answered in S. 42 paragraph 2 R. L. 1905 as well as by the terms of the Joint Resolution providing for the Special Election on July 26, 1910.

The effect of the provision of the Joint Resolution, is similar to that of S. 30 R. L. 1905 with this difference. By the provisions of Sec. 1, Acts 78, S. L. 1907, the last words of S. 30 R. L. 1905 "shall be used without change" have been modified so that a person coming within the requirements of that act may register at any time not later than the day before any election. But the provisions of the Joint Resolution strictly limit those who can vote at the Special Election to the names on the register of voters, used at the last general election, without change and to the extent of the special election repeals Sec. 1, Act 78, S. L. 1907. No matter where a person may now reside he can not vote in any precinct other than that in which he voted at the last general election. The several Boards of Registration of Voters has no power to change this basis fixed by the Joint Resolution. You will not be prevented from voting because of change of residence from one precinct to another. The point is you cannot vote in the precinct in which you have removed unless you were registered at the last general election. There is nothing, however, to prevent you from voting in the precinct in which you registered for the last general election whether you now reside there or not.

In other words the Registry of voters used at the last general election governs the entire Special Election and cannot be changed in any respect. The voting will be carried on strictly in accordance with that register.

Yours respectfully,
E. A. MOTT-SMITH,
Secretary of Hawaii.

A Compliment for the Senator.

When the young teacher of a small western New York charity kindergarten asked a new boy his name, she was rather taken aback to have him answer, "It's Chauncey Depew, ma'am."

A few days later, having heard that Chauncey was ill, she went to inquire for him.

The door was opened by a neat looking Irish woman, who, on being asked, "Is this Mrs. Depew?" replied:

"No, ma'am, that's not my name."

"But," said the nonplussed teacher, "Chauncey told me his name was Chauncey Depew."

"Sure, it is," promptly answered mother. "I named him for the senator himself. My name is Mrs. Pugh, an' his is Chauncey D. Chauncey D. Pugh."

Or Scrambled It.

Shirts of the "boiled" variety are often very refractory, and it takes more than courage and patience to put one on. Mrs. Jones, from the laundry, remarked to Mrs. Jones that it was a foolish custom, this wearing of stiff shirts. A writer in Tit-Bits tells the story.

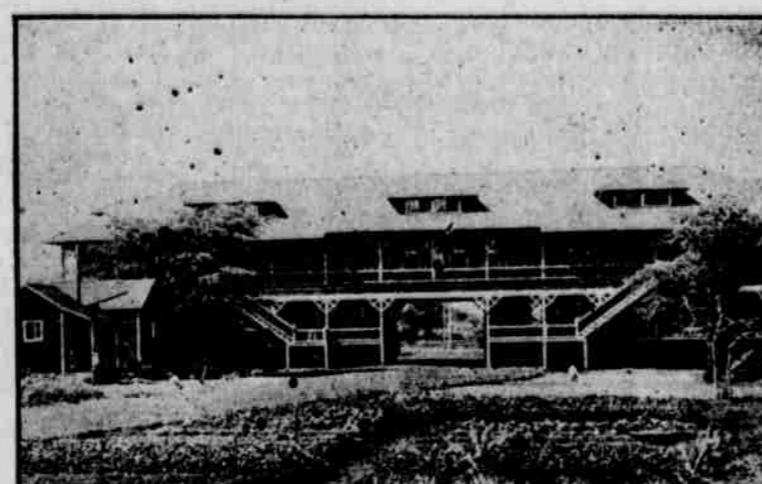

"We've got plenty of time, dear," said his wife. "I guess the only trouble is that the girl boiled it a little too long."

"Looks to me as if she had fried it!" said Mr. Jones, as his head emerged.
